Leadership Trust Initiative (LTI)

is a signature program of the New Richmond Area Community Foundation. Since 2009, LTI has been leading scores of individuals through a process to uncover their personal strengths and utilize these strengths as citizens and leaders within their communities.

The program is led by Jody Thone, a highly lauded leadership development consultant. Facilitated discussions, small group activities, and panel presentations create an engaging format for learning.

Over the course of the program, participants delve into topics including Strengths, Deep Listening, Resilience, Collaboration, Creativity & Innovation, and Leading Change. Participants apply their learnings as they work in small groups to design initiatives to benefit their communities.

"A community is less than whole until every individual citizen's leadership capacity is identified, nurtured, expressed, and shared."
